

Hiking...

It's fun, a great way to meet new people and good for you. Plus there's always a pub at the end!

So, what are you waiting for?

Swansea University Hiking Club runs a trip every weekend during term time, visiting just about everywhere in South Wales. From Chepstow on the English border to St David's in Pembrokeshire. Not forgetting the Gower and Brecon Beacons. We also run two trips further afield each term, including weekends to the Peak District, Dartmoor, Snowdonia, The Lake District and Shropshire.

To find out more, take a look at our web-site:
